FIVE MUSEUMS FOR THE GAMES A PUZZLE ADVENTURE

AT THE TUILERIES GARDEN - MUSÉE DU LOUVRE

YOUR MISSION

Five museums need you for a special mission!

In preparation for the Paris 2024 Olympic Games, the Centre Pompidou, the Louvre, the Musée d'Orsay, the Musée de l'Orangerie and the Musée du Quai Branly – Jacques Chirac have been studying a manuscript written by the founder of the modern Games, Pierre de Coubertin. The document contains five secret sentences. One thing is certain: each sentence is connected to a museum and derives its meaning from a strong tie between sport and culture.

Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to help each museum find the meaning of its secret sentence with the help of this sleuthing team:

ADAM

LÉONARD

WILLIAM

CÉLESTE

MARTINE

MÉLODIE

OMER &
MEG

Each of them thinks they have deciphered the manuscript. But who has the correct answer?

Find out by completing seven challenges based on artworks or garden features at each museum. Solve each puzzle to disqualify a team member and discover who has the correct answer.

The most determined players could be rewarded in a prize draw.

Keep up the pace

The fun isn't over! Complete the puzzle adventures at the four other museums to increase your chance of winning in the draw! Use the five secret sentences to write a final message on the puzzle passport.

Fun fact

The three Olympic values are friendship, respect and excellence. The four values added by the Paralympic movement are courage, determination, inspiration and equality. These values will help you in your mission!

GAME RULES

Welcome to the Tuileries Garden!

This French garden par excellence is a part of the Musée du Louvre.

The location of each challenge in your adventure is indicated by a flower, found on the map on page 4.

TO SOLVE THE PUZZLES, YOU WILL NEED TO:

- be in front of the artworks or garden features
- be observant
- have a pencil
- don't walk on the lawn
- don't skate or cycle
- don't pick any flowers

Set off to find them in whatever order you like! Use each correct answer to eliminate the secret sentence of a sleuth at the end of the booklet. Watch out! One of the sleuths will be disqualified twice.

The last sleuth left after completing the seven challenges has the correct answer.

To enter the draw, write the number of the correct secret sentence on your coupon and deposit it in the ballot box located at the reception point indicated on the map. Deadline: June 2. Good luck!

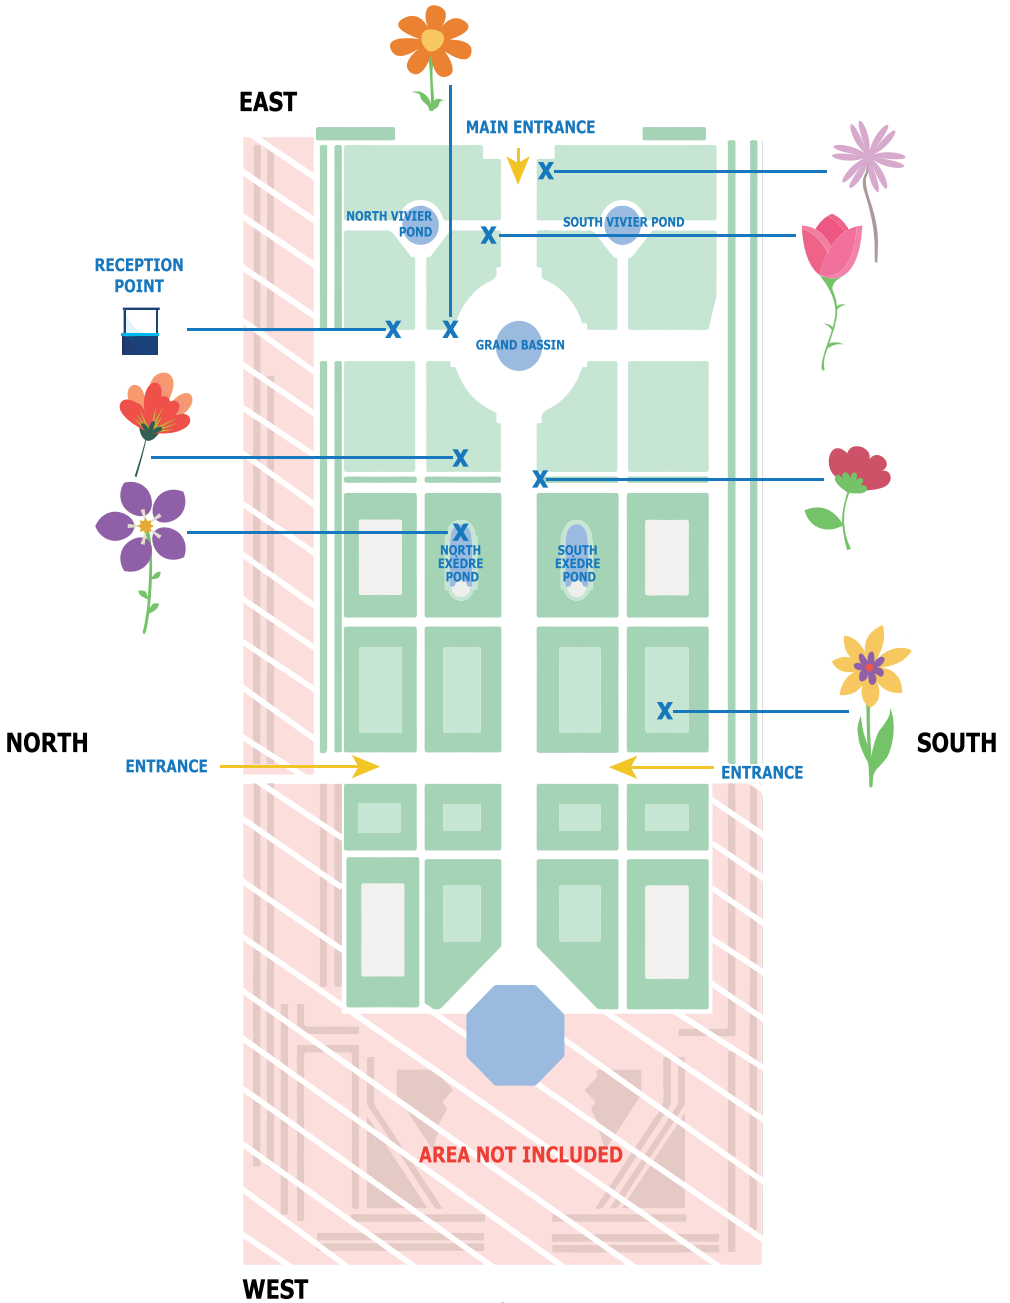

SLEUTHING TIP

Take the time to read the explanatory labels on the garden works, which are full of valuable information for your investigation!

YOUR SEARCH AREA

LOUVRE

YOUR CHALLENGE: Branch out

This point of interest is _____

Its name is _____

The Tuileries Garden is a green haven in the heart of Paris, guarded by over 3,000 inspired trees. Silent but attentive, nothing gets past them.

Compare the drawings below with the tree you discover. A little hint: the large round pool should be on your back. Once you've identified it, disqualify the sleuth at its feet on the last page: he or she hasn't found the right secret sentence.

The number or sleuth to disqualify:

YOUR CHALLENGE: Face the heavyweight Hercules

Title of the work _____

Artist's name _____

Hercules holds a precious treasure in his hand and wants to place it on the scale to the right.

Walk around the statue to see what it is!

Study the objects and their weights to determine how the scales will tip.

Found the answer?

Eliminate the sleuth next to the heavier scale to get closer to your goal!

Info corner

Have you heard of the twelve labours of Hercules? One of them is hiding in the Louvre. Find Hercules fighting the Hydra in the Denon wing of the Museum, Level 0, room 403!

YOUR CHALLENGE: Connect the roots

Title of the work _____

Artist's name _____

Meg is certain: these roots hide a clue that will help you disqualify one of the team's sleuths.

Study the sign in front of the work – its name will help you guess which letters you need for your challenge!

One sleuth's name contains all these letters. This sleuth did not find the right secret sentence.

Info corner

Look at this uprooted oak. It looks dead... But at the end of each of its five branches, a tree is reborn! A beautiful message of hope, isn't it?

Found the answer?
Remove that sleuth from the race
to continue the adventure!

The number or sleuth to disqualify:

YOUR CHALLENGE: Become a blossoming supersleuth

This point of interest is _____

Its name is _____

If your map skills are medal worthy, you should now be standing before a potted plant. The plant's 12-letter name appears on the sign. Start by eliminating the first and last letters of this name. Next, eliminate the fourth and tenth letters as well.

X		X								X	X
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12

Using the decoded message, disqualify the sleuth who lied!

Rearrange the remaining letters in the correct order to learn which sleuth is wrong and eliminate their secret sentence at the end of the booklet.

The number or sleuth to disqualify: _____

YOUR CHALLENGE: Find your way out of the labyrinth

Title of the work _____

Artist's name _____

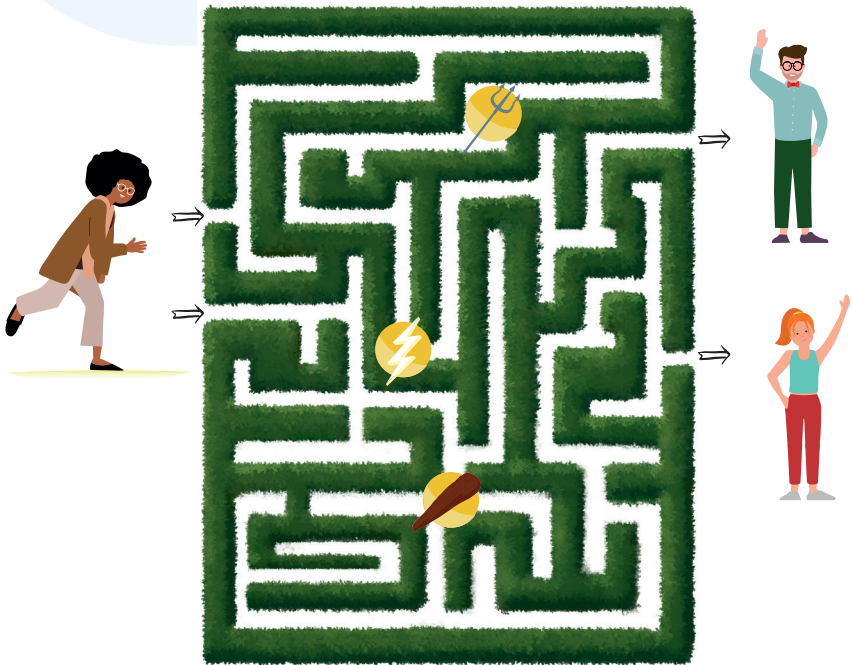

Both paths out of the labyrinth lead you to a sleuth who thinks they have the correct sentence...

Which should you disqualify?

Study the sculpture carefully: Theseus holds the weapon found on the path to the sleuth you must disqualify. Don't get lost!

Info corner

Find Theseus fighting the Minotaur in the Richelieu wing of the Louvre, Level -1, Cour Puget, room 105!

The number or sleuth to disqualify:

YOUR CHALLENGE: Win the race

Title of the work _____

Artist's name _____

Hippomenes looks back in search of his running partner Atalanta, but she has disappeared!

Study the statue of Atalanta, to the right of the pond. Somewhere on the pages of this booklet is a sleuth in the exact same position. He or she does not have the correct secret sentence!

Info corner

Hippomenes or Atalanta – do you know who won the race? Read about this myth and find these beautiful sculptures in the Richelieu wing of the Louvre, Level 0, Cour Marly, room 102!

Found the answer?
Mark the sleuth disqualified
on the last page to get closer to your goal.

The number or sleuth to disqualify: _____

YOUR CHALLENGE: Hunt for the odd one out

Title of this work _____

Artist's name _____

In a hurry to meet her four-legged friend, Diana has forgotten an essential item for their hunting trip. Study the statue carefully to see what's missing.

Info corner

Diana, also known as Artemis, lives in the forest and is the goddess of the hunt in Greek mythology. Find Diana and her hunting companion in the Richelieu wing of the Louvre, Level -1, room 102!
