FIVE MUSEUMS FOR THE GAMES A PUZZLE ADVENTURE AT THE MUSÉE DE L'ORANGERIE

YOUR MISSION

Five museums need you for a special mission!

In preparation for the Paris 2024 Olympic Games, the Centre Pompidou, the Louvre, the Musée d'Orsay, the Musée de l'Orangerie and the Musée du Quai Branly – Jacques Chirac have been studying a manuscript written by the founder of the modern Games, Pierre de Coubertin. The document contains five secret sentences. One thing is certain: each sentence is connected to a museum and derives its meaning from a strong tie between sport and culture.

Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to help each museum find the meaning of its secret sentence with the help of this sleuthing team:

ADAM

LÉONARD

WILLIAM

CÉLESTE

MARTINE

MÉLODIE

OMER &
MEG

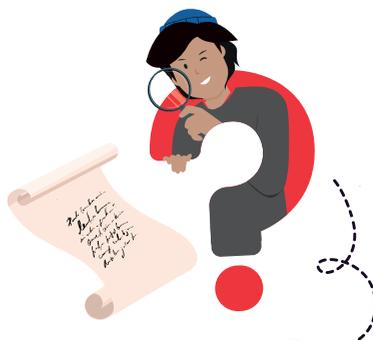

Each of them thinks they have deciphered the manuscript. But who has the correct answer?

Find out by completing seven challenges based on artworks at each museum. Solve each puzzle to disqualify a team member and discover who has the correct answer.

The most determined players could be rewarded in a prize draw.

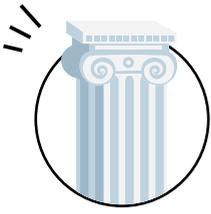

Keep up the pace

The fun isn't over! Complete the puzzle adventures at the four other museums to increase your chance of winning in the draw! Use the five secret sentences to write a final message on the puzzle passport.

Fun fact

The three Olympic values are friendship, respect and excellence. The four values added by the Paralympic movement are courage, determination, inspiration and equality. These values will help you in your mission!

GAME RULES

Welcome to the musée de l'Orangerie!

This former orangery features Claude Monet's Water Lilies and works by old and modern masters from the Jean Walter-Paul Guillaume collection.

The location of each challenge in your adventure is indicated by a symbol, found on the map on page 4.

TO SOLVE THE PUZZLES, YOU WILL NEED TO:

- be in front of the artworks
- be observant
- have a pencil
- Don't run
- Don't touch the artwork

Set off to find them in whatever order you like! Use each correct answer to eliminate the secret sentence of a sleuth at the end of the booklet. Watch out! One of the sleuths will be disqualified twice.

The last sleuth left after completing the seven challenges has the correct answer.

To enter the draw, write the number of the correct secret sentence on your coupon and deposit it in the ballot box on the counter opposite the audio guides. Deadline: June 2. Good luck!

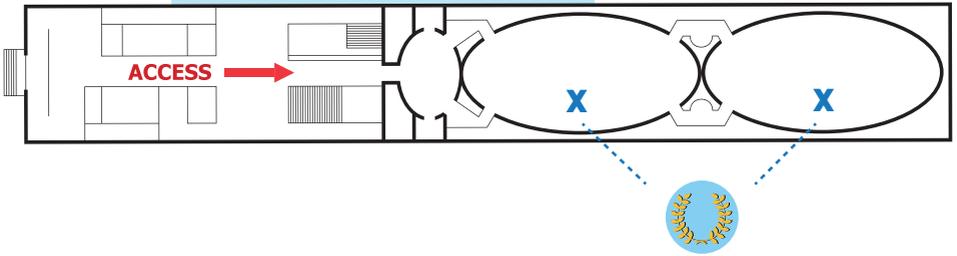

SLEUTHING TIP

The Musée de l'Orangerie, like Olympism, attaches great importance to internationalism: have fun identifying the nationalities of the artists featured in the collections to cultivate the link between the art world and the spirit of the Games!

YOUR CHALLENGE: Go with the flow

Title of the work: _____

Artist's name: _____

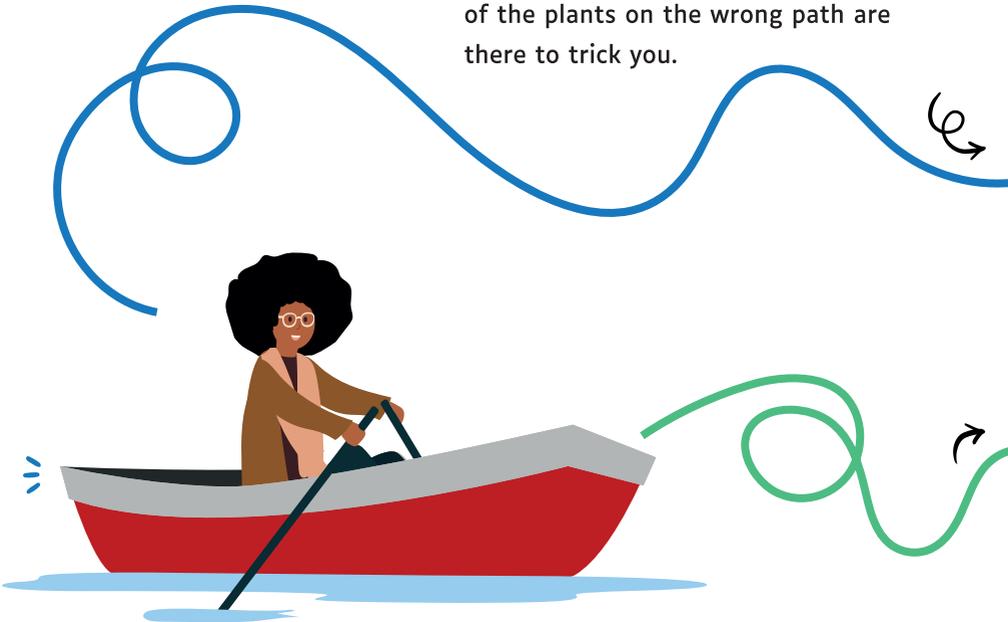

Céleste loves the paintings of Claude Monet. She has taken a boat out on the water lily pond at Monet's home in Giverny.

Follow the blue line and the green line across the pages of the booklet. One of these lines leads you to the sleuth to be disqualified.

Which path leads to the right answer ?

Carefully observe the details painted on the enormous canvases found in these two rooms!

You'll find a series of plants on the paths to the sleuths. Those that lead to the disqualified sleuth are inspired by plants painted by the artist. Some of the plants on the wrong path are there to trick you.

YOUR CHALLENGE: Stay in tune

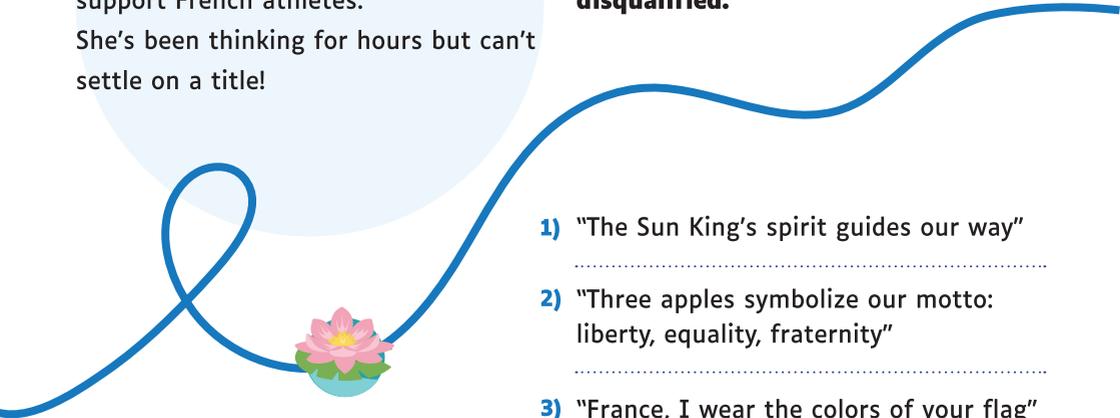

Title of the work: _____

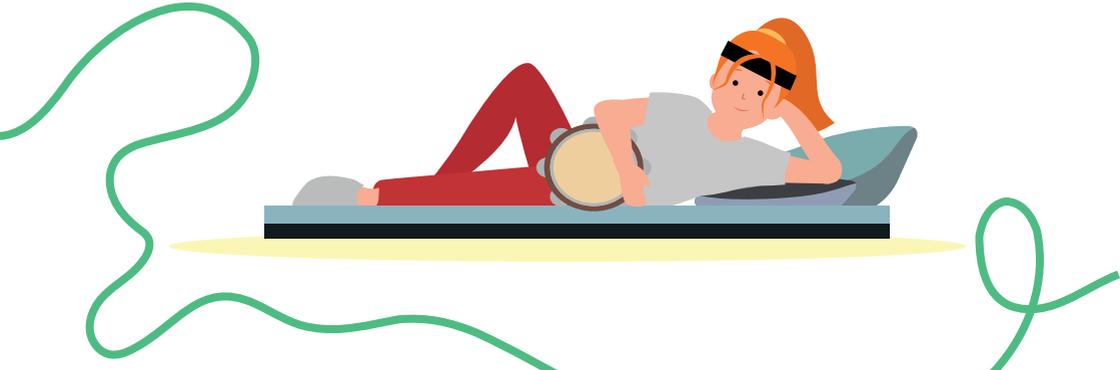

Artist's name: _____

Even if music ceased to be an Olympic event in the mid-twentieth century, this woman is determined to present the anthem she just composed to support French athletes. She's been thinking for hours but can't settle on a title!

Study the details in the work carefully to discard the title that does not belong in the list below: the number next to it belongs to the sleuth to be disqualified.

- 1) "The Sun King's spirit guides our way"
- 2) "Three apples symbolize our motto: liberty, equality, fraternity"
.....
- 3) "France, I wear the colors of your flag"
.....
- 4) "She plays her drum to be number one"

The number or sleuth to disqualify: _____

YOUR CHALLENGE: Read between the lines

Title of the work: _____

Artist's name: _____

Equality among the members of a family is important. The siblings in this family have collected part of the clue you need to eliminate a secret sentence...

The sisters are in a rush to tell you and speak all at once!

Decode their message: start by reading the letters in the same color as the outfit of the sister with a ring on her finger. Then read the letters in the same color as the hair of the sister whose top sports the winners' bouquet. Complete your challenge with the letters in the same color as the dress of the sister reading you the correct answer.

All done? Use your clue to identify the sleuth who did not find the right secret sentence.

YOUR CHALLENGE: Face the storm

Title of the work: _____

Artist's name: _____

This ship is put to the test as it bravely battles the storm! Help William and Adam hoist its sails by drawing three lines – not four! – to join the sentences below.

The ship is rocking: tilt your head slightly to the left to see a letter appear. The person holding the letter on a sign did not find the right mystery sentence and can be disqualified at the end of the booklet.

- red ●
- black ●
- blue ●
- yellow ●
- is on the right side of the flags
- is the color of the hull
- is the color of the captain's beard
- is on the left side of the flags

YOUR CHALLENGE: Strike a chord

Title of the work: _____

Artist's name: _____

Martine is in a playful mood. Her fun Olympic-colored outfit is inspired by this famous Commedia dell'arte character. Study the work carefully to answer the questions.

Eliminate every color you find that is also a guitar chord. The number of the only chord left belongs to the sleuth to disqualify on the last page.

- ◆ What Olympic color is not found in Harlequin's costume?
- ◆ What color aside from yellow appears in an alternating pattern with either black or green?
- ◆ What color are the famous servant's shoes?
- ◆ Look at Harlequin's right foot. What color in the costume is closest to the slipper?

YOUR CHALLENGE: Step onto the podium

Title of the work: _____

Artist's name: _____

Complete this challenge by studying the work to identify three letters. Add them to the steps of the podium!

Letter 1: a scarlet three-armed vowel.

Letter 2: the consonant in the painting that is not in Robert's name.

Letter 3: a vowel that turns you in circles.

Found them? These three letters are found in the name of a sleuth to disqualify at the end of the booklet.
