FIVE MUSEUMS FOR THE GAMES A PUZZLE ADVENTURE

AT THE CENTRE POMPIDOU

YOUR MISSION

Five museums need you for a special mission!

In preparation for the Paris 2024 Olympic Games, the Centre Pompidou, the Louvre, the Musée d'Orsay, the Musée de l'Orangerie and the Musée du quai Branly – Jacques Chirac have been studying a manuscript written by the founder of the modern Games, Pierre de Coubertin.

The document contains five secret sentences. One thing is certain: each sentence, inspired by the strong tie between sports and culture, is about one of the five museums.

Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to help each museum find the meaning of its secret sentence with the help of this sleuthing team:

ADAM

LEONARD

WILLIAM

CELESTE

MELODIE

MEG

Each of them thinks they have guessed the sentence for each museum. Your job? Find the sleuth with the right secret sentence at each location.

Keep up the pace

The fun isn't over! Pick up a passport in the entrance area of one of the museums. Have it stamped at each location of your adventure and use it to reconstruct a famous motto using the five secret sentences found at the museums.

Complete the puzzle adventures at the four other museums to increase your chance of winning in the draw!

Fun fact

The three Olympic values are friendship, respect and excellence. The four values added by the Paralympic movement are courage, determination, inspiration and equality. These values will help you in your mission!

GAME RULES

Welcome to the Centre Pompidou !

Your mission has brought you to the largest modern and contemporary art collection in Europe.

On the last page of the booklet are the seven secret sentences suggested by the sleuths. Solve each challenge to obtain either the number of a sentence or a sleuth to eliminate.

Be careful! One sleuth will be eliminated twice!

The sleuth remaining after you have solved the seven challenges has the correct answer.

YOUR CHALLENGE: Let your thoughts fly

Title of the work _____

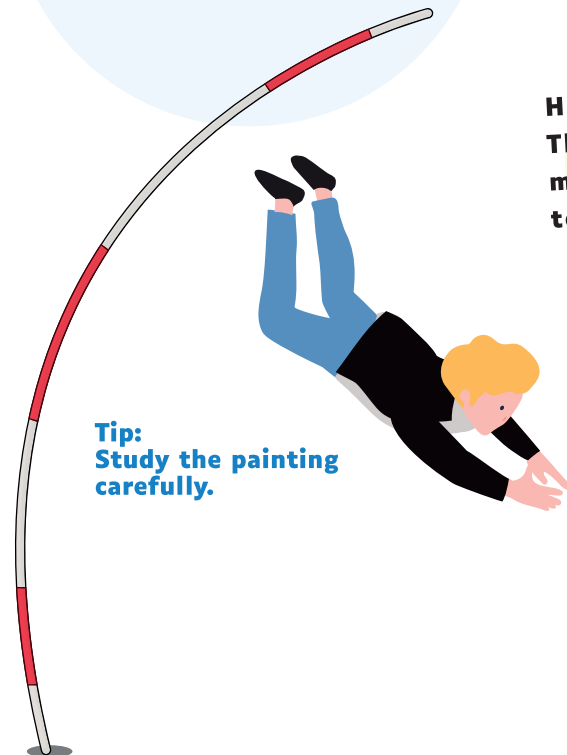

Artist's name Frida Kahlo

This artist painted many self-portraits: representations of herself. In this one, Frida Kahlo re-used a small glass frame decorated with flowers and birds inspired by Mexican culture.

What is the challenge?

Three birds are hiding in the pages of this booklet.

They are inspired by the colors of this painting, but only one hidden bird resembles those found in the work. Find it!

Tip:
Study the painting carefully.

Have you found the bird?
The number on its sign matches the sentence to eliminate.

YOUR CHALLENGE: Push your limits

Title of the work _____

Artist's name _____

Like these wrestlers, Celeste and Leonard will fight to defend their ideas. Both are convinced that another sleuth is wrong.

Observe the work of art. It does not include one of the following three colors: yellow, red or blue.

In the text below, read only the letters in this color. Use the clue obtained to disqualify a sleuth.

"The artist takes up the theme of wrestling, symbolizing a close-quarters battle with painting, a favorite motif of the avant-gardes. She has shown determination throughout her career by challenging artistic, social and gender conventions."

Number to eliminate or sleuth to disqualify:

YOUR CHALLENGE: Be on time

Title of the work À ma femme [To my wife]
Artist's name _____

This work is a beautiful illustration of the artist's love for his wife.

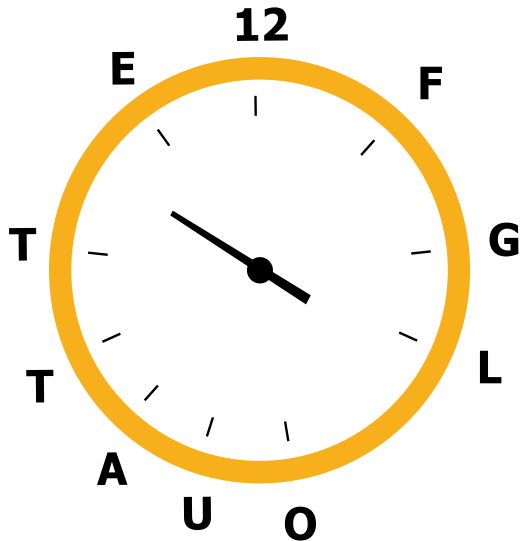

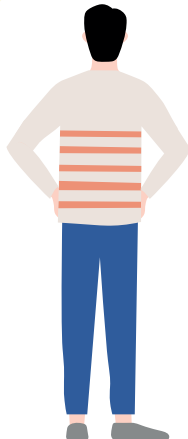

Find a clock in the painting and observe where the hands are. Draw the missing clock hand in your booklet to make sure you're on time!

Start at the letter to which this new hand points. Moving clockwise, skip every other letter.

The word you decipher is a clue to help you find a character from the painting.

Look through the booklet to find a character in this same sporty position.

 They can be disqualified.

YOUR CHALLENGE: Make a difference

Title of the work _____

Artist's name _____

For the artist of this work, what matters is getting something done, not whether it is done well or done badly. Even if William made some mistakes in his drawing of the work, what counts is that he drew it.

Study the first three panels of the work, from left to right. Count the differences between the socks in William's drawing and those in the work.

1. 2. 3.

The number obtained can be eliminated at the end of the booklet.

YOUR CHALLENGE: A friendly bet

Title of the work _____

Artist's name _____

A giant work of art? A store? Or, as the artist says, a sculpture?
This work was initially installed in Nice, as a meeting place and exhibition space for the artist's friends.

On one side of the work is a clue to help you disqualify a sleuth.

Walk around the work, keeping these tips in mind:

The clue is not on the wall where you'll find "Je suis ici" [I'm here].

The red tree does not lead you to the clue either.

Instead, look for a portrait of the artist standing next to a means of transport featured in several Olympic events.

The sleuth you are seeking also engages in this sport. Look through the pages of the booklet to find them. Disqualify them from the race when you find them!
